

Report of Two days National Webinar on “संस्कृतसंस्कृत्योः विकासे त्रिपुरायाः योगदानम्”
(Tripura's contribution to the Development of Sanskrit and Sanskritisation) at A.M.B.S.
Mahavidyalaya, Amarpur, Gomati, Tripura

The Department of Sanskrit in collaboration with IQAC of A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya, Amarpur, Gomati, Tripura organized a Two days National webinar on “संस्कृतसंस्कृत्योः विकासे त्रिपुरायाः योगदानम्” (Tripura's contribution to the Development of Sanskrit and Sanskritisation) on 10th & 11th October 2020. It is immense pleasure to say that more than 900 participants (Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Research Scholars, students and others) from different corners of the country took part in the webinar. The webinar is created historical records by getting such kind of huge positive response in this college. Since the pandemic period due to COVID-19 throughout the world is going on, the program was held through Google meet along with YouTube live.

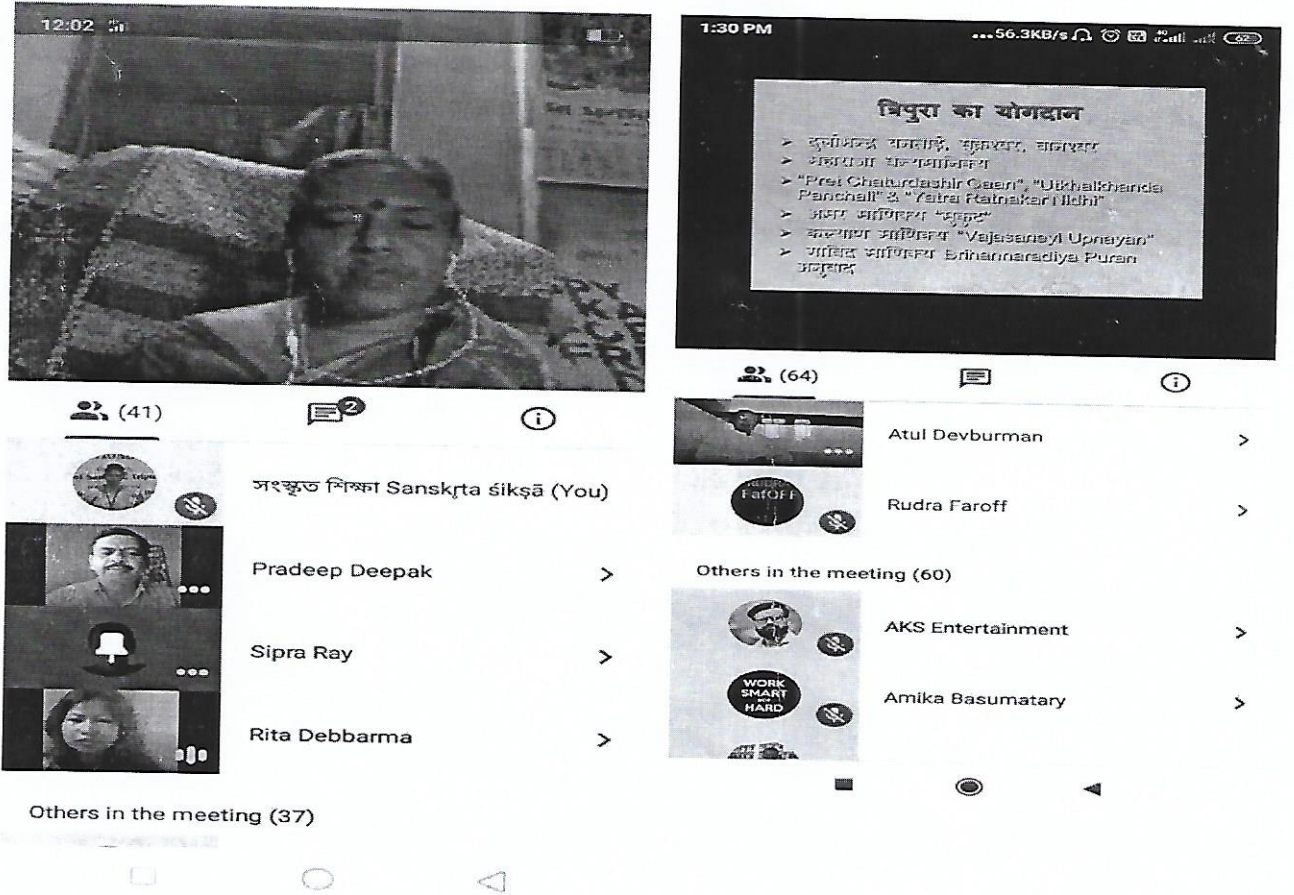

Designation

903 responses

The webinar was chaired by Dr P.K. Deepak, Principal In-charge A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya. In Day one, the program was hosted by Ms Nandita Debbarma Asst. Professor, Organizing Secretary, Head In-charge of Dept. of Sanskrit, A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya.

The day one program began with a Mangalacharanam which was performed by Mr Gadadhar Padhan Teacher of Non- Formal Sanskrit Education Centre of the college. The welcome Address was given by Organizing Secretary, A.M.B.S Mahavidyalaya. A Keynote Address on the webinar topic was given by Dr. Shipra Ray Associate Professor, H.O.D Dept. of Sanskrit, Tripura Central University. The Presidential Speech was address by Dr. P.K. Deepak, Principal In-charge A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya. Dr. Kripa Shankar Sharma, Asst. Professor, Sahitya Bibhag, Sanskrit Central University, Uttarakhand as Resource Person has highlighted the rich heritage of Sanskrit & the cited various points with names of places in support. As Resource Person Dr. Devraj Panigrahi, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Sanskrit, Tripura Central University highlighted Tripura's main contributions in development of Sanskrit. After the end of presentation by three eminent resource persons, the vote of thanks has expressed by Joint Organising Secretary. In this so far the Day one program ended with Kalyan Mantra which was chanted by Ms Piyali Chakraborty Guest Lecturer, Dept. of Sanskrit, A.M.B.S Mahavidyalaya.

The day two program began with Mangalacharanam by Ms Sonali Saha Guest lecturer, Dept. of Sanskrit, A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya. The Welcome Address was given by Mr. Hamani Bhagya Jamatia, Asst. Professor, IQAC Coordinator & Joint Organizing Secretary, A.M.B.S

Mahavidyalaya. The Presidential Speech was given by Dr. P.K. Deepak, Principal In-charge of the college. Dr. Atul Debbarma MLA, Tripura Legislative Assembly, as resource person highlighted the contribution of Tripura along with important kings of Tripura, Tripuri language and an insight of Tripuri Deities in relation with Hindu god and Vedic culture rituals in the indigenous form resource as the most similarities of Baba Goriya with Lord Ganesha. Dr. Shankarnath Tiwary Asst. Professor, Dept. of Sanskrit, Tripura Central University as Resource Person Impressed with Dr. Atul Debbama's findings and continued it in support with phsyological points in strengthening like the growth of sanskrit in Tripura is quite similar to the other part of India as Rajtarangni of Kashmir and Vikramacharit in Bengal. Dr. Pawan Kumar Professor, Shikshashastra Vibhag Central Sanskrit University Aklavya Campus, Agartala as Resource Person highlighted the past and presence relevance of sanskrit language. The Day two also was so fruitful and quite relevance to all participants. The vote of thanks was given by the Organising Secretary and Kalyan Mantra which was chanted by Mr Gadadhar Padhan. In this way the day two programme as well as valedictory program ended with National Anthem.

Pradeep
24/12/2020
Dr. Pradeep Kumar Deepak
Principal-In-Charge
A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya
Amarpur (Gomati) Tripura

23/12/2020
Assistant Professor
A.M.B.S. Mahavidyalaya
Amarpur (Gomati), Tripura
(MS. NANDA DEBBARMA)
Organising Secretary
HOD In-charge
Department of Sanskrit